The Nuts and Bolts of Immigration Practice Series

What you will learn and why you should attend . . .

This three-part series of full-day Immigration law programs will present a detailed analysis of current Immigration law and procedure issues. This series is a must for the aspiring Immigration practitioner as well as experienced practitioners in “cross-over” disciplines. Immigration law impacts companies and individuals alike in many related disciplines, including Criminal, Family, Business, Corporate, Employment and Labor law. If you practice in any of these areas, this series is a must. Join our outstanding faculty and enhance your ability to represent clients in Immigration and other “cross-over” matters. You will learn:

- The “Nuts and Bolts” to build your Immigration practice – for new practitioners or just those new to Immigration.
- How Immigration law significantly impacts individuals and companies in the “cross over” disciplines of Criminal, Family, Business, Corporate, Employment and Labor law.
- Strategies and practical approaches to working with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (CIS - Citizenship and Immigration Services, ICE - Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and CBP - Customs and Border Protection), U.S. Department of State, U.S. Department of Labor, and Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation.
- The latest developments in Immigration law, including the continuing changes in the aftermath of 9/11 and new legislation.
- Options for Temporary Visas and Permanent Residence through Business and Family Sponsorship.
- Waivers and Relief from Deportation/Removal before the CIS and U.S. Immigration Court.
- How to avoid ethical violations and conflicts of interest unique to Immigration practice.
